BREED THEATER.

"Little Shepherd of Tumbling Run," Pastoral Motion Picture.

This beautiful picture was shown at the Breed theater last evening to a large and delighted audience, and the interesting story as revealed by the series of beautiful pictures was closely followed by the eager patrons. The Lives of Napoleon and Josephine is a perfect picture, historically correct, and makes a fitting companion picture to the excellent other one shown at the Breed recently under the title of Napoleon, the Man of Destiny. The complete and extensive list of pictures for this week includes the following: Porecastle Tom, the warship picture; The General's Fiancee, The Teamster's Daughter, Escaped Melody, and the weirdly fascinating film, We're Backing Up.

weirdly fascinating film. We're Bacaing Up.
Quite a novelty in the illustrated gong line is the song featured by Mr.

GIRL'S AND CHILD'S EMPIRE DRESS

Paris Pattern No. 2921 - All Seams Allowed.

Watermelon-pink dimity has been used for the development of this dainty little frock, which is made up in the popular Empire style. The plaited pretelles, which extend over the shoulders, are caught into the belt back and front and trimmed along the edges with a narrow insertion of lace, and the short puffed sleeves are gathered into bands of similar insertion and finished with a narrow edging.

The pattern is in five sizes—2 to 10 years. For a child of 6 years the dress requires 4½ yards of material 24 inches wide, 3½ yards 27 inches wide, 25½ yards 38 inches wide or 2½ yards 12 yards of narrow insertion and 1 yard of edging.

Price of pattern 10 cents.

WHAT THE PAPERS SAY. People's Dress Denotes Prosperity.

Perhaps one of the best evidences Perhaps one of the best evidences of returning prosperity was made manifest the other day by the crowds of well dressed people everywhere. The streets were thronged and the prevaling style of dress for men and women was to be seen on every hand. The trolley cars were loaded down all day, the amusement resorts received visitors in almost unprecedented numbers, and at Savin Rock, the leading Connecticut watering place, the crowd was estimated at 45.000 people. Wherever there was anything going on the spectators were numerous, all were in spectators were numerous, all were in holiday attire and proved conclu-sively that they appreciated the holi-sively that they appreciated the holiday, the fine weather and the fact that they had a dollar to spend.

Business may not have recovered its normal strength in every branch, but labor is being fairly well employed and there is no better evidence of it than in the appearance of the average man and woman. It is a bit distressing to hear of so many strikes, but it is hoped that both sides to each of the controversies may see their way clear to meet on some common ground by which the men may return to work and the business revival proceed unand the business revival proceed un-obstructed.
